Let's Start!

Shopping is hard work!

Learning Outcome

Identify and describe taste and style in music and fashion through a wider range of language in both work and social contexts.

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about clothing.
- I can make comparisons using as ... as and not as.
- I can agree or disagree with so or neither.

Ask your partner:

- Who do you go shopping with?
- When do you usually go?
- What is the best part of shopping?
What is the worst?

Let's Explore!

Sally is looking for some stylish work wear.

* "Work wear" is what is acceptable to wear at your specific job. This could be anything from a suit to a uniform.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Salesperson: Hello. Can I help you?

Sally: I'm looking for some stylish work wear. I'm looking for essentials and interesting accents.

Salesperson: With office wear, I think comfort is as important as look.

Vanessa: So do I. I don't think they should be too tight or too synthetic.

Salesperson: Neither do I. It will make working easier.

Sally: I think I'd like to look as chic as possible without being overdressed.

Vanessa: I think so too, Sal.

Sally: I don't think just separates will do.

Vanessa: No, I don't either.

Sally: Some mix and match outfits would help, I think.

Vanessa: So do I.

Salesperson: I do too. Let me show you some sets and add ins. That will help expand your wardrobe as quickly and efficiently as possible.

Sally: I see. Then I'll have as many looks as I need.

Salesperson: Exactly. I'll start a dressing room for you. We can start with some timeless outfits. Then we can choose some current extras and accessories.

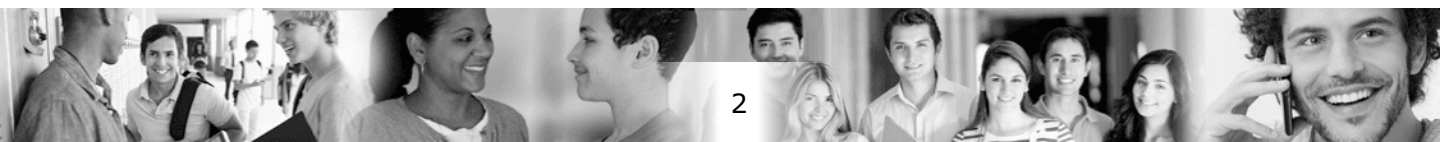

Vanessa: I don't think we could have chosen a better place to start!

Sally: Neither do I!

Salesperson: We'll start with some plain skirts and pants then find some patterned tops.

Vanessa: I'm just as excited about this as you are!

Sally: Oh, we do love shopping!

Let's Practice!

Sally wants to mix and match her clothes!

Instructions: Organize the mystery sentence. Read the sentences aloud. Check your pronunciation with your instructor.

1. current / accessories. / we / Then / can / choose / extras / some

2. work / looking / for / wear. / stylish / I'm / some

3. will / think / just / separates / I / don't / do.

4. would / I / Some / match / mix / outfits / think. / and / help,

5. some / timeless / outfits. / with / We / can / start

Let's Practice!

Sally and Vanessa agree!

Instructions: How would someone agree or disagree to the statements below? Write So do I or I do too, Neither do I or I don't either in front of each statement.

1. I think comfort is as important as look. _____

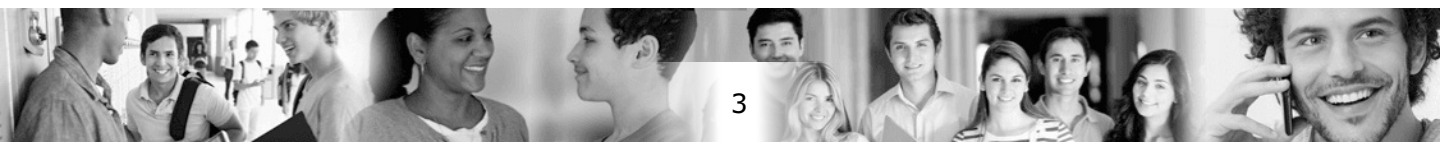

2. I don't think they should be too tight or too synthetic. _____

3. Some mix and match outfits would help, I think. _____

4. I don't think we could've chosen a better place to start. _____

5. I think I'd like to look as chic as possible without being overdressed. _____

6. Do you think pink is a better color than blue? _____

Extension Activity

Compare two clothing stores.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Think of two clothing stores you might shop at.
- Discuss the difference between them (as ... as/not as ... as).
- Write a dialogue comparing the stores.
- In the dialogue say which store is better.
- Have the two people in the dialogue agree on which store is better.
- Read the dialogue aloud with someone.

Target Words

- stylish (adjective): in style; keeping with current fashion
e.g. I'm looking for some stylish clothing.
- work wear (noun): clothing you wear at work
e.g. I need some new, more fashionable work wear.
- essential (noun): a basic thing that you need
e.g. I'm looking for essentials and interesting accents.
- synthetic (adjective): man-made fabric
e.g. I don't think I want a synthetic sweater.
- chic (adjective): fashionable
e.g. I'd like to look as chic as possible.
- overdressed (adjective): too formal
e.g. I don't want to be overdressed.
- mix and match (expression): clothing pieces that can be mixed together to make new outfits e.g. Some mix and match outfits would help.
- separate (noun): an individual piece of clothing
e.g. I don't think just separates will do.

Learning Points

Making Comparisons

You use as + adjective/adverb + as to compare things that are in some way equal:

This outfit looks just as good as the other one.

You use not as ... as to compare things that aren't the same:

This jacket doesn't fit as well as the first one.

Examples:

- With office wear, I think comfort is as important as look.
- I think I'd like to look as chic as possible without being overdressed.
- That will help expand your wardrobe as quickly and efficiently as possible.
- Then I'll have as many looks as I need.
- This leather jacket is not as expensive as the other one

Learning Points

Responses with So and Neither

You use so and neither for positive and negative agreement.

You use so to show agreement in positive statements.
Sometimes we also use too to express the same thing.

Example:

Amanda: I like this dress!

Janet: So do I./I do too.

You use neither to show agreement in negative statements.
Sometimes we also use either to express the same thing.

Example:

Amanda:

I don't think this fits well.

Janet:

Neither do I. (neither is a negative word)

I don't either. (either is used with the negative)

When you use so and neither

Statement	Positive agreement
I think comfort is more important.	So do I.
I think you want to look as chic as possible.	I think so too.
Some mix and match outfits would help, I think.	So do I./ I do too.
Statement	Negative agreement
I don't think they should be too tight.	Neither do I.
I don't think just separates will do.	No, I don't either.
I don't think we could have chosen a better place to start!	Neither do I!
