Let's Start!

Sometimes people get angry at work!

Learning Outcome

Identify and describe taste and style in fashion through a wider range of language in both work and social contexts.

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about behavior, personal, and clothing.
- I can make comparisons using as ... as and not as.
- I can answer questions with so or neither.

Ask your partner:

- Have you ever seen a teacher or boss angry? Why did it happen?
- What do you think people should do to calm down in that situation?

Let's Explore!

Working isn't anywhere near as easy as studying!

* When something is "not anywhere near" something else, it is very different from it.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Vanessa: I'm glad we stopped for coffee and a snack!
- Sally: I don't seem to be as energetic as I used to be!
- Vanessa: Neither do I! Why is that?
- Sally: I think that working is not anywhere near as easy as going to school.
- Vanessa: So do I. Here I thought studying was tougher!
- Sally: So did I. I never thought shopping would tire me out!
- Vanessa: Neither did I! Well, to our defence we are relentless when it comes to finding the perfect dresses, sweaters, scarves and jewelry.
- Sally: Not to mention pants, blouses and jackets and belts!
- Vanessa: I don't think shopping for work wear is as easy as shopping for school clothes.
- Sally: I don't either. Being responsible and dependable for work is not as interesting as it sounded when we were at school.
- Vanessa: I know that some days I seem aggressive and impatient at work. I don't mean to be.
- Sally: Me neither! I get irritable and short-tempered sometimes!
- Vanessa: So do I! Sounds like we're not getting as much down time as we need to regulate our lives.
- Sally: I don't come across as being anywhere near as affable as Peter does.
- Vanessa: No. Neither do I. I wonder how he stays so positive and relaxed.
- Sally: He always acts as if he hasn't got a care in the world!
- Vanessa: Hmm ... We'll have to ask him.

Let's Practice!

Vanessa and Sally aren't as carefree* as they used to be.

*"Carefree" means relaxed and free from responsibility.

Learning Points

Making Comparisons

We use as + adjective/adverb + as to make comparisons when the things we are comparing are equal in some way:

This leather jacket is as soft as a sweater!

We use not as ... as to make comparisons between things which aren't equal:

This leather jacket isn't as expensive as that one.

Examples:

- I don't seem to be as energetic as I used to be!
- I think that working is not anywhere near as easy as going to school.
- I don't think shopping for work wear is as easy as shopping for school clothes.
- Being responsible and dependable for work is not as interesting as it sounded when we were at school.
- Sounds like we're not getting as much down time as we need to regulate our lives.

Responses with So and Neither

We use so and neither for positive and negative agreement.

So is used to show agreement with positive statements.

Sometimes we also use too to express the same thing.

Example:

Amanda: I like this dress!

Janet: So do I./I do too.

Neither is used to show agreement with negative statements.

Sometimes we also use either to express the same thing.

Example:

Amanda:

I don't think this fits well.

Janet:

Neither do I. (neither is a negative word)

I don't either. (either is used with the negative)

When you use so and neither, the auxiliary needs to agree with the verb tense in the
