Let's Start!

That looks amazing on you!

Learning Outcome

Identify and describe taste and style in fashion through a wider range of language in both work and social contexts.

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about clothing.
- I can make comparisons using as ... as and not as.
- I can agree or disagree with so or neither.

Ask your partner:

- When you shop, who do you trust to make a final decision on your clothing? Yourself? A friend?
- How do you feel about the salesperson's comments when you shop?

Let's Explore!

Wow, Sal! That's very modern Lois Lane!

* "Lois Lane" is the feisty newspaper woman featured in Superman comics and films.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Sally: Hmm ... I don't look as slim as I did last year.
Vanessa: You're just being critical. You're just as thin as ever.
Sally: I can't wear this shade of green though.
Vanessa: Neither can I. Green is not as easy to wear as blue or rust or rose.
Sally: I don't see myself working in this.
Vanessa: I don't either. You need something that is not as fussy as this. I haven't seen anything else that has looked as good as the first outfit.
Sally: Neither have I.
Vanessa: I really loved that.
Sally: So did I. That's a definite. The vintage-look top and boot-cut pants fit well.
Vanessa: And I thought the price was right as well.
Sally: I did too!
Vanessa: The saleswoman really knows her stuff.
Sally: I think so too. She's as good as they get.
Salesperson: These two designer dresses are a wool blend. They're marked down.
Vanessa: I like them both.
Sally: Me too!
Salesperson: I'll take these to give you as much room as possible.
Sally: Thanks.
Vanessa: Wow Sal. That's very modern Lois Lane! If you threw a loose sweater over it, you could really dress it down.
Sally: I think a jacket would change the look of it as well.
Vanessa: So do I.
Salesperson: This leather jacket will toughen it up for that big interview or big date!
Sally: Nice! I am having so much fun!
Vanessa: I am too!

Learning Points

Making Comparisons

You use the structure as ... as with adjectives and adverbs to compare things that are the same :

This leather jacket is as soft as a sweater!

You use not as ... as to compare things that aren't equal:

This leather jacket isn't as expensive as that one.

Examples:

- I don't look as slim as I did last year.
- Green is not as easy to wear as blue or rust or rose.
- You need something that is not as fussy as this is.
- She's as good as they get.
- I'll take these to give you as much room as possible.

Responses with So and Neither

You use so and neither for positive and negative agreement.

You use so to show agreement with a positive statement.
Sometimes you also use too to express the same thing.

Example:

Amanda: I like this dress!

Janet: So do I./I do too.

You use neither to show agreement with a negative statement.
Sometimes we also use either to express the same thing.

Example:

Amanda:

I don't think this fits well.

Janet:

Neither do I. (neither is a negative word)

I don't either. (either is used with the negative)

When you use so and neither, the auxiliary verb has to agree with the verb tense that was used in the original statement.

A more colloquial form of positive agreement is Me too.

A more colloquial form of negative agreement is Me neither.
