Let's Start!

Let's review!

Learning Outcome

Identify and describe taste and style in music and fashion through a wider range of language in both work and social contexts.

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about socializing, fashion and clothing.
- I can compare two things or people and describe the quality of an object or a person.
- I can agree or disagree with so or neither.

Ask your partner:

- How often do you get together with friends?
- Where do you go?
- What do you like to do?

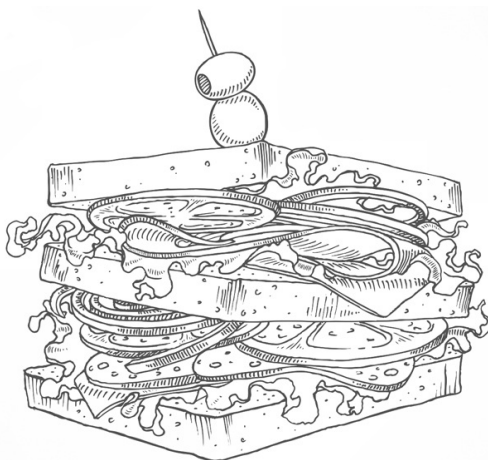

Let's Explore!

Peter's food is edible, but not wonderful like Vanessa's.

* "Edible" means able to be or fit to be eaten by humans.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Peter: I think this was a great idea!
Vanessa: So do we!
Peter: The old slick Hollywood musicals! I'm glad I could make it!
Vanessa: So are we!
Peter: This is as exciting as it gets for a movie buff like me! The food is as good as I get from the priciest places in town!
Sally: I think so too. I can't remember having better snacks than these!
Peter: These are the most delicious sandwiches. Mine are never as tasty as yours.
Sally: Neither are mine!
Peter: Even though we're cooking as often as we can these days. Right Sal!
Vanessa: You'll be as good a cook as most people in no time.
Sally: I'm not so sure about that ...
Peter: Neither am I. My food is edible, but that is as far as it goes for now, I think.
Sally: Me too. I'm never going to be a great cook!
Peter: I'm not either, Sal.
Vanessa: Show Peter the latest pictures of your purchases from our shopathon!
Sally: Have a look. I am stepping up my game! I'm mixing vintage and new. Aren't they the coolest?! I got some neat marked down accessories!
Peter: The businesswomen in Boston don't look as fashionable as this, Sal. It's so much trendier! Hey, how was the music festival?
Vanessa: Classical, rap ... it was a bit disappointing.
Peter: Ah, but tonight will make up for it!
Sally: Oh Peter!

Let's Practice!

Peter, Vanessa and Sally almost always agree!

Instructions: Match a half from the left with another one from the right to create coherent sentences. Read the sentences and responses aloud. Check your pronunciation with your instructor.

Target Words

- movie buff (noun): someone who knows a lot about movies
e.g. He's a big movie buff; he watched movies all weekend.
- Hollywood (noun): a place in the U.S. that is famous for making films e.g. I'd like to watch some old Hollywood musicals this weekend.
- slick (adjective): well done; expertly done
e.g. The Music Man parody was almost as slick as past musical productions.
- shopathon (noun): a marathon shopping trip
e.g. I don't think Peter is up to one of our shopathons.
- vintage-look (adjective): looks like it made in the past e.g. It's a vintage-look top.
- rap (noun): a type of music
e.g. I'm not fond of rap but I like rock 'n' roll.

Learning Points

Making Comparisons

We use as + adjective/adverb + as to make comparisons when the things we are comparing are equal in some way:

This leather jacket is as soft as a sweater!

We use not as ... as to make comparisons between things which aren't equal:

This leather jacket isn't as expensive as that one.

Examples:

- I'm not as well-versed on names of musicals as I should be though.
- That would give us a list of as many movies as we could watch in an evening.
- It wasn't nearly as good as others we've been to.
- Maybe this wasn't as interesting as others because we're a bit jaded.
- When you have been to as many good concerts as we've been to, we shouldn't complain.

Responses with So and Neither

We use so and neither for positive and negative agreement.

So is used to show agreement with positive statements.
Sometimes we also use too to express the same thing.

Example:

Amanda: I like this dress!

Janet: So do I./I do too.

Neither is used to show agreement with negative statements.
Sometimes we also use either to express the same thing.

Example:

Amanda:

I don't think this fits well.

Janet:

Neither do I. (neither is a negative word)

I don't either. (either is used with the negative)

When you use so and neither, the auxiliary needs to agree with the verb tense in the original statement.

Learning Points

A more colloquial form of positive agreement is Me too.
A more colloquial form of negative agreement is Me neither.

Statement	Positive agreement
I think this was a great idea!	So do we!
I'm glad I could make it!	So are we!
The food is as good as I get from the priciest places in town!	I think so too.
That is as far as it goes for now, I think.	Me too.
Statement	Negative agreement
Mine are never as tasty as yours.	Neither are mine!
I'm not so sure about that ...	Neither am I.
I'm never going to be a great cook!	I'm not either, Sal.
