Let's Start!

Buying second-hand can be fun!

Learning Outcome

Identify and describe taste and style in fashion through a wider range of language in both work and social contexts.

Ask your partner:

- How often do you shop for second-hand or vintage clothing or other items?
- Where can you find these things in or near your city?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about behavior, personality, and socializing.
- I can make comparisons using as ... as and not as.
- I can compare two things or people and describe the quality of an object or a person.

Let's Explore!

Vanessa shops vintage, not second-hand*!

* "Vintage" clothing is from the 1920s to 20 years before the present day.

 "Second-hand" clothing is previously owned clothing, from the past few years.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Vanessa: This vintage shop is just the coolest place. The clothes aren't as cheap as I expected though!
- Sally: They're higher quality than at your typical second-hand shop. Look at these sweaters! They're not made as well today as they were twenty years ago.
- Melodie: Can I help you ladies?
- Vanessa: Melodie! You work here?
- Melodie: I'm here as often as I can be. Truth be told, I'm a bit of a workaholic.
- Vanessa: I should say so, working here and at the restaurant! When do you go out? When do you socialize?
- Melodie: It's only once a week. The pace is slower here. I get to meet people.
- Vanessa: Sally, this is Melodie. She's one of my best waiters. She's a gem - hardworking, attentive to customers and highly esteemed by her colleagues!
- Sally: Those are impressive attributes! I hear Vanessa can be quite demanding!
- Melodie: She's not as exacting as some I've worked for.
- Vanessa: Alright! I'm not as difficult as you may think Sally!
- Sally: Hmm ... Let's return to a more interesting topic, like finery!
- Melodie: Our latest additions are here. Older garments that are not as seasonal as these are back here.
- Vanessa: Sally, you're in good hands. Melodie's a real go-getter!
- Sally: Ooo ... those are gorgeous!
- Melodie: You have better taste than most. These are some of our finest frocks!
- Vanessa: I'll just make myself comfortable. Sally is the consummate leisurely shopper.

Let's Practice!

Learning Points

Making Comparisons

We use as + adjective/adverb + as to make comparisons when the things we are comparing are equal in some way:

She is just as hardworking as we are!

We use not as ... as to make comparisons between things which aren't equal:

The clothes aren't as cheap as I expected though!

Examples:

- They're not made as well today as they were twenty years ago.
- I'm here as often as I can be.
- She's not as exacting as some I've worked for.
- Alright! I'm not as difficult as you may think Sally!
- Older garments that are not as seasonal as these are back here.

Learning Points

Superlatives/Comparatives

You use a comparative to compare somebody or something to one other person or thing.

You use a superlative to compare somebody or something to the whole group that he, she or it belongs to.

Look at the chart for information on how to form the comparative and superlative:

Adjective	Comparative	Superlative	Form
cool	cooler	the coolest	Most adjectives: +er, +-est
late	later	the latest	Adjectives ending in -e: +r, +-st
happy	happier	the happiest	2-syllable adjectives ending in -y: +ier, +iest
interesting	more interesting	the most interesting	3+-syllable adjectives: more + adjective most + adjective
good bad	better (than) worse (than)	the best the worst	Irregular comparisons

- you use than after comparatives
- you add the in front of the superlative form to describe people, places and things.

Examples:

- The pace is slower here.
- You have better taste than most.
- These are some of our finest frocks!
- They're higher quality than at your typical second-hand shop.
